What: Ka Papa Lo'i 'o Punalu'u is the sister site of Ka Papa Lo'i 'o Kānewai. Every 3rd Saturday of the month, Ka Papa Lo'i 'o Punalu'u is open to all who are interested in working at the lo'i to gain a deeper appreciation for the 'āina and traditional Hawaiian farming methods. This is also a good opportunity for students with scholarships who need to fulfill community service hours.

When: The workday runs from 9:00 am – 1:00 pm. Light refreshments will be provided for volunteers to enjoy.

What to bring: Casual work attire (that can get muddy), sun protection, personal water bottle, shoes or slippers

Where: Ka Papa Lo'i 'o Punalu'u is located in the moku of Ko'olauloa in the ahupua'a of Punalu'u. Traveling on Kamehameha Highway, the entrance is located directly across (ma uka) of Punalu'u Beach Park. As you enter, there will be signs posted and/or someone directing you to a place to park.
