

THE LEGENDS OF 1976

HŌKŪLE‘A

TALK STORY WITH
THE ORIGINAL TEAM
OF THE MAIDEN
VOYAGE IN 1976.

SATURDAY AUGUST 19, 7PM-9PM
THE RITZ-CARLTON, KAPALUA

A courageous group of individuals set sail in 1976 aboard the Polynesian voyaging canoe Hokule'a. Using only the stars and nature as their tools to sail to Tahiti and back, they could not have foreseen the powerful legacy that was created by achieving their goal. Not without sacrifice... the original crew of 1976 gathers to share their experiences, emotions, and opinions of how the future of "wayfinding" will affect generations to come.

ACTIVITIES OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

SATURDAY, AUGUST 19

- 8am to 1pm – Planting of 4,000 koa trees and other native plants at the Pu'u Kukui Watershed Preserve above Honolua Bay
- 2pm to 5pm – Public tours of the sailing canoe

SUNDAY, AUGUST 20

- 8am to 5pm – Public tours of the sailing canoe